

Grow Up

Eric Reprid

5am I let you go
Broke my heart to let you know
I can't keep lovin' you no more
I swear this time I'ma try and grow up
I think better on my own
Fuck your friends they all don't know us
They said keep your hopes real low
But if I lose you I don't wanna grow up
Your friends don't really know us
They think it's toxic so what
If the cost is us then
I don't ever wanna grow up

9am I got Henny in my soda
Fuck you on the low I would never give you closure
If you finna let some pussy boy hold ya
You better not do all the things that I showed ya
Know your lil' friends all sayin' I told ya
They ain't know the nights when I had you bent over
Did a lotta things but I could never control ya
 Fucked a lotta hoes but I'm still tryna hold ya
And I still wanna show you the better me
Still feel like you belong to me
Maybe one day you'll come back to me

5am I let you go
Broke my heart to let you know
I can't keep lovin' you no more
I swear this time I'ma try and grow up
I think better on my own
Fuck your friends they all don't know us
They said keep your hopes real low
But if I lose you I don't wanna grow up
Your friends don't really know us
They think it's toxic so what
If the cost is us then
I don't ever wanna grow up
