

Loner

Eric Reprid

Poison in my veins, I ain't stayin' sober
Saw you last night, but I didn't know ya
Got too much drive, I'ma run 'em over
Thought you were the one, turned me to a loner
Leave me alone, yeah
Had to let you go, yeah
Bitch, I'm good alone

Devil in some Prada, you just like your mama
Heart full of trauma, fiend for the commas
If I catch your mans in the street, he gon' get bloodied up
Edward Scissorhands, you cut me off, I'm finna cut him up
(Yeah)
I'm sick and tired of these bitches tryna shame me
Play me like I'm sweet, like I won't make him pay me
And he throwin' shade, so nobody finna sway me
I don't fist, but I keep a motherfuckin' blade on me

Now you turned me to a loner
I don't wanna be alone

Poison in my veins, I ain't stayin' sober
Saw you last night, but I didn't know ya
Got too much drive, I'ma run 'em over
Thought you were the one, turned me to a loner
Leave me alone, yeah
Had to let you go, yeah
Bitch, I'm good alone

Treated you like Vamily, but now I'm alone
This life done switched up, but you wasn't supposed to
Now you just another lil' hating ass bitch, uh, uh
You was never gang, you always riding on some dick, uh, huh
I been on his block and I know he a pussy, huh
When I catch him outside his house, I'm gon' say wassup
How'd he go from Vamily to a stranger to a fuckin' opp
There's always a problem, swear this year never fuckin' stops

Now you turned me to a loner
I don't wanna be alone

Poison in my veins, I ain't stayin' sober
Saw you last night, but I didn't know ya
Got too much drive, I'ma run 'em over
Thought you were the one, turned me to a loner
Leave me alone, yeah
Had to let you go, yeah
Bitch, I'm good alone
