

Look At Me Now

Eric Reprid

Hit me with a haha I knew that it was over
I just spent two whole days not sober
And you just spent two whole nights bent over
Couldn't even gimme just a lil' bit of closure
Fuck up out my life now I can't be no side piece
My brudda keep two twin Glocks and they siamese
Focused on a better life for the ones beside me
He said you was toying with me and was gon' try me
So I got my chips right finally gon' live life
Falling in love's not for me it don't hit right
I won't ever swallow my pride cause it don't sit right
You won't ever be in my life cause you don't fit right

I been so lost in my head
Well look at me now (yeah)
Well look at me now (yeah)
I been so lost my pain
Well look at me now (yeah)
Well look at me now (yeah)

Maybe I don't look right you savage like Suge Knight
Said that I'm a hoe but this shit isn't what it look like
I've just been trying to go figure out what I like
Literally texting all these bitches to find my type
Pour me up a deuce I'm gon' hit my new bae
We been fucking in the dark night no Bruce Wayne
And my shorty bi like the word I ain't hear you say
Now I'm blowing up in perfect timin' girl you too late
Focused on the lime light baby you not my type
I'm gon' hit the road with my bros in the high life
Buy the whole fuckin' top floor in a high rise
You ain't ever share my fucking vision get out my sight

Said I been so lost in my head
Well look at me now (yeah)
Well look at me now (yeah)
Said I been so lost my pain
Well look at me now (yeah)
Well look at me now (yeah)

I was losing my mind
You left me a mess
But look at me now
Said I don't wanna be friends
You left me for dead
But look at me now

Said I been so lost in my head
Well look at me now (yeah)
Well look at me now (yeah)
Said I been so lost my pain
Well look at me now (yeah)
Well look at me now (yeah)

I been so lost in my head
Well look at me now (yeah)
Well look at me now (yeah)
