

Nights

Eric Reprid

Oooooooo wasted nights, nights
Oooooooo wasted nights, nights
Oooooooo wasted nights, nights
Oooooooo feel alright, right

It ain't nothin' too special
Drunk to the bone when I met u
I don't give a fuck who the next dude
I don't really don't see no issues with it
Just one of those nights when you on my back
I don't want no love you can have that back
I just want that peace of mind throw it back one time
Up on me like that I be out my mind
Yea
No love no love no love for the boy

Oooooooo wasted nights, nights
Oooooooo wasted nights, nights
Oooooooo oooooooo oooooooo wasted, wasted nights, wasted nights, n ights
Oooooooo oooooooo oooooooo wasted, wasted nights, wasted nights

She just wanna feel the high
But she ain't make no sacrifice
She gon' go and act sublime
Say she always scrutinized
Problems look small when you at these heights
Downed too much ain't no surprise
You ain't got nothin' to do if you stayed home
Never gon' be alone
Seven nights in a row
Don't that shit get old
Time thought it was gold
These days my life come and goes
They gon' see this when they scroll
Drinkin' till I'm lying prone
That's all I know

Oooooooo wasted nights, nights
Oooooooo wasted nights, nights
