Every Minute

Eric Saade

We wake up together, we messed up
Memories from last night
Can't find them, they're gone
Laughing at our problems like crazy
We can't stop
You don't wanna leave, wanna leave

Oh baby, yeah
We couldn't sleep, so we were up all night
Making each other blush, and that's all right
I got a feeling
You got a feeling, yeah-yeah

I love it in the morning
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
I love it in the evening
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
I love it every weekend
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
I want it all, every minute
I love it in the morning
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
I love it in the evening
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
I love it every weekend
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
I want it all, every minute

I want it all, every minute

We don't speak, we're sweating
You know that
We might be too loud and my windows wide open
And all of my neighbors are sleeping
We don't care
We just wanna stay, wanna stay

Oh baby
We couldn't sleep, so we were up all night
Making each other blush, and that's all right
I got a feeling
You got a feeling, yeah-yeah

I love it in the morning
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
I love it in the evening
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
I love it every weekend
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
I want it all, every minute
I love it in the morning
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
I love it in the evening
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
I love it every weekend
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
I want it all, every minute

I want it all, every minute

I love it every weekend
Oh-na-na-na-na-na
Every morning
You light up my dark every minute
