

Why Do We Need Fashion

Eric Saade

Keep the glow
Ignore the answers
Steal the show
Create disasters

I won't stop by your judging eyes
You stare me down
Get off my ground
Imagine life when no need exists
And no responsibilities

Why do I need fashion, oh oh
For your satisfaction, oh oh
In and out of fashion, oh oh
Why do we need fashion, oh oh
I bend the rules
Break the rules
Make the rules
I hate the rules
Why do we need fashion

You provoke trying to make a name
I shouldn't care
You're all to blame
I won't back down
I will always stand
'Cause this is me
I am who I am

So I stand to show what really matters

Why do I need fashion, oh oh
For your satisfaction, oh oh
In and out of fashion, oh oh
Why do we need fashion, oh oh
I bend the rules
Break the rules
Make the rules
I hate the rules
Why do I need fashion, oh oh
For your satisfaction, oh oh
In and out of fashion, oh oh
Why do we need fashion, oh oh
I bend the rules
Break the rules
Make the rules
I hate the rules
Why do I need fashion, oh oh
Why do we need fashion

Opinions based on words of sorrow
Judging if I'm wrong or wrong
My fingers pointed like a hand gun
Suddenly I'm dead and gone

So I stand to show what really matters, oh oh

Keep the glow
Create disasters

Why do I need fashion, oh oh
Why do we need fashion, oh oh
I bend the rules
Break the rules
Make the rules
I hate the rules
Why do I need fashion
For your satisfaction, oh oh
Why do we need fashion, oh oh
Why do we need fashion
