

Nothing Can Change My Mind

Eric Woolfson

Nothing can change my mind
Nothing can stand in my way
Knowing without any shadow of doubt
This is the hour
This is the day
Nothing can stop me now
No matter what people may say
I'm leaving the mad rushing real world behind
Nothing can change my mind

This time the dream can't wait another minute
Won't let the clouds get in my way
This time I'm gonna take it to the limit
Make tomorrow more than just another day

I'm ready to take the chance
So let the dice fall where they may
I'm wise to the promises, secrets and lies
No crock of Gold, No big surprise
You can tell them I've seen the light
And say that the future seems bright
I've chased all their rainbows
The very last time
Nothing can change my mind

This time the dream can't wait another minute
Won't let the clouds get in my way
This time I'm gonna take it to the limit
Make tomorrow more than just another day

So send my apologies
Give my regrets
Make my excuses
And pay my respects
Then cancel the papers
And sell my effects
Don't try to scare me
Don't double dare me
Nothing can change my mind
Don't try to persuade me
Don't serenade me
Nothing can change my mind
