

A Letter To Her

ericdoa

I know you've been hurt
Help me at my worst
You heal scars left in my mind
I clean blood off my shirt
Make me know my worth
Swear we leaving earth
Could give a fuck about myself
I swear you coming first

I hate to see you cry
If I could take your pain away
I'd do it every time
Everyday I'm anxious
But around you I feel fine
Used to want to die
But I'm better off alive

I hate to think that I'm losing you in months
I got so close, but I don't think I'm far enough
Look at my money I don't think I count enough
Look at my money I don't think I count enough
To my world you're a blessing
You saved me from myself
I guess my mind a weapon
I could talk to you for hours
Just for fun or if I'm stressing Four-door Nissan, release pressure when I step in

I know you've been hurt
Help me at my worst
You heal scars left in my mind
I clean blood off my shirt
Make me know my worth
Swear we leaving earth
Could give a fuck about myself
I swear you coming first

"Hey Eric, I love you"

Road of broken hearts
Depressions hard to mend
Every time I'm with I swear you're my only friend
I just want to keep going, but this story never ends
I just want to keep going, but this story never ends
I hope you do great
Be safe is all I ask
I hope when this chapter close
We could just relive our past

I know you've been hurt
Help me at my worst
Make me know my worth
Swear we leaving earth
Could give a fuck about myself
