Go ahead and take my money
Don't want it anyway
Oh, you like playing with me?
Let me in all your games
Girl, I been paranoid
In other words, afraid
I won't forget about what I did until my dying day

It'll cost me an arm and a leg
Just to love you again
Just to love you again, I swear
It'll cost me an arm and a leg
Just to love you again
Just to love you again, I swear

Skip over the details
Don't wanna hear 'em again
I trust that you mean well
It's what I hear from your friends

I know what you need from me
Something I can't get give to you
You don't like believing me
I do not mean shit to you
I know what you need from me
Something I can't get give to you
You don't like believing me
I do not mean shit to you

Shake the dead man's hand
He's a familiar face
I tend to swallow my sorrow
It's a familiar taste
What is it that you want me to do?
Take your time, name your price
Just give me something to choose and I'll

It'll cost me an arm and a leg
Just to love you again
Just to love you again, I swear
It'll cost me an arm and a leg
Just to love you again
Just to love you again, I swear

Ooh, oh, oh, oh
Ooh, oh, oh, oh

Fix my face
I'll be pretty for you later
Live for your needs
Is there something I can cater?
Cross my heart
I'm just hoping that you miss me
Hold me in your arms 'cause I'll feel safer when you're with me

It'll cost me an arm and a leg
Cost me an arm and a leg

Arm and a leg
Just to love you again

It'll cost me an arm and a leg
Just to love you again
Just to love you again, I swear
It'll cost me an arm and a leg
Just to love you again
Just to love you again, I swear
