

I could tell you a story
And change every word 'cause the details weren't important
If I had a problem with you, by now it'd be sorted
I don't really care about you
Just a face that I see in the morning
All my views been distorted
This shit is hard)

They told me not to bite, baby, I'll proceed with caution
Last man was a lame, it's a good thing that you dropped him
We can make it shake if you lookin' for a problem
You can play me like a fool till you find out that I'm not one

Is everything the same?
What do you expect?
Watching what I say
'Cause I tend to project
Tryna find my way through the maze
Soundin' like no one's left
I'm taking a deep, prepare for the final stretch

I'm bathing in glory
I'm tired of finding a way for you to support me (Support me)
Use everything you were told as a way to extort me (You adore me)

I swear all that love shit's played out
I could either get up or lay down
I wish that you had never came around

I'm not done with you yet
I'll put together what's left
I'm not done with you yet

They told me not to bite, baby, I'll proceed with caution
Last man was a lame, it's a good thing that you dropped him
We can make it shake if you lookin' for a problem
You can play me like a fool till you find out that I'm not one

You can play me like a fool till you find out that I'm not one
We can make it shake if you (Haha)
