

Tryna latch on 'cause I'm on the latest
I know that you can think it, but don't say it
You promised me the world, but you never gave it
I'm throwin' out my phonee, cuttin' out relations
I'm over the sweet nothings, baby, tell me the truth
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Do you need me just like I need ya? Like I'm your only believer
I'll make a fool of myself just to know there's no one else
Do you enjoy seeing me hurting? I can't complain, it's on purpose
Just can't control myself, I'll be living under your spell

Bro doin' a hundred on the 95
Body out the window like I'm ready for a drive-by
That is not your swag, boy, you a hivemind
Not an opportunist, but I think that it's the right time
You tryna play me like I'm-, but I won't start it
Just more petty shit that I get involved in
You can make music and not be an artist
I'm not tripping, I'm just being honest

Do ya?
Need me like I need you here?
Do ya?
Hear me, am I speaking clear?
Do ya?
Need me like I need you here?
Do ya?
Hear me, am I speaking clear?

Do you need me just like I need ya? Like I'm your only believer
I'll make a fool of myself just to know there's no one else
Do you enjoy seeing me hurting? I can't complain, it's on purpose
Just can't control myself, I'll be living under your spell

You talkin' 'bout a bag, boy, I got mine
Never going back to signing names on a dot line
Damn
I can make a fortune off a topline
Back then, almost had to call into the hotline
Oh, I'm all out of patience
All out of patience
Girl, go 'head and say it
Go 'head and say it
There's not a chance we can save this
Oh

Do ya?
Need me just like I need ya?
Do ya?
Enjoy seeing me hurting?
Do ya?
