(I think you're outta luck)

(Need to lighten up)

(Hey, whoa)

(Hey, whoa)

(Boy, you better move)

(I don't like you)

Hi, I'm Dante

Sorry, but I think you're outta luck now
I need everything in cash by the sundown (Yeah)
And if you don't cooperate get gunned down
Yeah, businessman, ain't no way I'm getting shut down
Sorry, but I think you're outta luck now
I need everything in cash by the sundown (Yeah)
And if you don't cooperate get gunned down
Yeah, businessman, ain't no way I'm getting shut down

I might have to act up for no reason, left his body leakin'
Left the bros because you got some money, that's a act of treas on
I got that boy brain looking like slush, left him fucking bleed in'
Stepping on the [?] you got what I needed
Yeah, boy, you better listen
Yeah, just like I'm Jack, I gotta cut it, get to rippin'
I'm pushing weight just like a piston
I'm off a X, it got me lifted
Slide, one on one, you got me dancing with a knife
I'm calling back up, boy, you know we gon' be fine
Just like a riddle, I got something to blow his mind
His body is just something they won't find

Sorry, but I think you're outta luck now
I need everything in cash by the sundown (Yeah)
And if you don't cooperate get gunned down
Yeah, businessman, ain't no way I'm getting shut down
Sorry, but I think you're outta luck now
I need everything in cash by the sundown (Yeah)
And if you don't cooperate get gunned down
Yeah, businessman, ain't no way I'm getting shut down
