

Neilaworld
Ah-ah, aah
Aah, aah-mm
Na-na-na-na-na
Na

Had to reset, fell into the old me
You say you love me but you act like you don't know me
And this liquor in my body kill me slowly
To my death, you're my one and my only
Wish you would show me

Yeah, she ask me how I'm feeling, bitch, I'm feeling great
And I'm sorry if I ever pushed you out the way
I try my hardest not to think about all my mistakes
Don't like who I became, you think that I'm insane
But I still think about you anyway
Every time I try to speak, I tend to hesitate
My mind is dirty, baby, hard for me to concentrate Intention will remain, bitch, you're my Saving Grace
Look at myself and I'm sorry what I put you through
To see you happy, yeah, there's nothing that I wouldn't do
Eats me alive 'cause you're happier with someone new
Where our story concludes
I hope that I improve
Speak from my heart, I'm being genuine
You heal my sickness baby, yeah, you're my medicine
Your presence calming, it put me in sleep like sedative
You know it's evident, that's what you benefiting

Feel like I'm losing my mind
Manifestation I created, and it's coming alive
Look in the mirror, see a figure, but we don't look alike
I drag my nails across my face to reassure I'm alive

Had to reset fell into the old me
You say you love me but you act like you don't know me
And this liquor in my body kill me slowly
To my death, you're my one and my only
Wish you would show me
