

hey there nice to meet ya

ericdoa

Ah, ooh oh

If I had a dollar for every time you lied
I'd be a millionaire
Girl, what's the point of pretending that I was never there
Yeah, I try to escape the party, but all your friends are there
You said you like getting toxic
You think I'm not aware?

Hey there, nice to meet ya
I've been hesitant to greet ya
It's be so hard to believe you
You don't treat me like an equal
I don't ever wanna see you
It's just something I agree to
I know that it's hard to be me
But I think that I would hate to be you

Oh, I'm the one to take shit too far?
But I don't really have to try too hard
To change the way you think
I don't gotta say those hurtful things you say to me

Ay, but fuck you
I heard you been run through
Said I never loved you but you the one I run to Oh, I'm supposed to trust you?
When you make it a plus two
Yeah, I hope when I'm finally happy that it's gon' crush you

You got it all figured out
Shut ya mouth
Wet 'em up and put 'em down
Shut you up, won't make a sound
I hope everyone gon' let you down
You got it all figured out
Shut ya mouth
Wet 'em up and put 'em down
Shut you up, won't make a sound
I hope everyone gon' let you down

You were a piece of me
You were a piece of me
You were a piece of me
You were a piece of me

Hey there, nice to meet ya
I've been hesitant to greet ya
It's be so hard to believe you
You don't treat me like an equal
I don't ever wanna see you
