

Aye, shoutout Skress for real
Skressa
Neilaworld

I can't get you off my mind, my thoughts are tied to you
I count my breaths, my world is falling, don't know what to do
I see your face, I hide my hurt, 'cause I can't face the truth
You're overwhelmed, and you feel stuck, so I won't make you choose

When I first saw your face, I swear I'd fallen in love again
I burn inside, won't tell you why until I meet my end
I'm crying out, lend me your hand, I'm tired of suspense
I put a wall around my thoughts 'cause that's just my defense
You change the way you are, don't like how I've been acting
You argue every night, say shit for a reaction
She want the glamour, want the money, and the camera, action
I make the bag do fucking flips, baby, like Riley Lavin

I can't get you off my mind, my thoughts are tied to you
I count my breaths, my world is falling, don't know what to do
I see your face, I hide my hurt, 'cause I can't face the truth
You're overwhelmed, and you feel stuck, so I won't make you choose

I need help, baby, running out of options
Got some money, old friends keep flocking
Set path and I'm stuck, bitch I'm locked in
I put poison in my lungs, smoking toxins
Bitch, I'm posted in the function and I'm nauseous
They moving weird so I gotta stay cautious
Hit up Chach when I touch down Austin
Look around, and I don't feel conscious

Bracelet Cartier
Blank look on my face, I feel out of place, I don't wanna wait
Try to pave my way, I don't feel safe, is it all too late?
So much shit I wanna say, I cannot relay, I don't wanna wait
No, I don't wanna wait

I can't get you off my mind, my thoughts are tied to you
I count my breaths, my world is falling, don't know what to do
I see your face, I hide my hurt, 'cause I can't face the truth
You're overwhelmed, and you feel stuck, so I won't make you choose
