

Pacific

Loose cigarette upon my lips, I
Feel my best
I'm in my head, I count my thoughts too much
Watch my step
It would be easy if I cruise through life
With no regret
I burn down everything that makes it right
And nothing's left
Got late night calls from all my exes
And I've been looking for an exit
Turn your words into a weapon
I remember when you said it
It go

I fucking hate you
And everything you seem to like
A fiery hatred I bring out
And I don't know why
You so two-faced
Baby, this a piece of mind
This how you are
Baby, you the one that I despise

And I stay stuck to you, like parasite
I always end up lying to you, baby
I'll be fine
And you so cryptic with your words, baby
Gimme signs
You show me everything you feel
Read between the lines
I'm the person that you made me
I wonder how you're feeling lately
And I just can't help from wondering
Why?
Cause you treat me like I'm garbage
Tell me that I start it
I remember what exactly you implied
And it goes like

I fucking hate you
And everything you seem to like
A fiery hatred I bring out
And I don't know why
You so two-faced
Baby this a piece of mind
This how you are
Baby, you the one that I despise

You realize that I make mistakes
I know you're cold inside
I know you're filled with hate
Sometimes people never change
And I'm happy to say

I fucking hate you and everything you seem to like

That you seem to like
I fucking hate you and everything you seem to like
That you seem to like
