Glas

Hangin' upside down, blood rush to my head
Lookin' out the window, never know what's comin' ahead
Loose ties, mind hangin' on by a thread
Lose time thinkin' 'bout what's comin' up next

I've been waitin' just for someone push me over the edge
Believe me, you need me, but I-I-I-I-
Can't help but trip over the small things
You call my bluff, don't give a fuck, just watch me

Took the joke a little too far, out of my head
Yeah, hang me out to dry by the ice on my neck
Shootin' heroin with models, everybody's a mess
I remember chokin' up about somethin' you said
I caught your bluff, you gave it up, I saw it
You feel me out, I knew you could, I loved it
I'm stuck here without ya, I wish you the best
Yeah, with or without you, the world is a mess

I've been waitin' just for someone push me over the edge
Believe me, you need me, but I-I-I-I-
Can't help but trip over the small things
You call my bluff, don't give a fuck, just watch me

Right now, I could smile, baby, I'm livin' large
Late October, I remember, yeah, we met at the bar
Happy feeling now, told me that I'm gon' be a star
One day, you'll find out just who you are
I don't wanna lie, I feel like I'm slippin' away
New shit that I find somehow just gets in the way
Sun comin' out, but now my visions turnin' to gray
And when it ends I have one thing left to say

I've been waitin' just for someone push me over the edge
Believe me, you need me, but I-I-I-I-
Can't help but trip over the small things
You call my bluff, don't give a fuck, just watch me

(Took the joke a little too far, out of my head
Yeah, hang me out to dry by the ice on my neck
Loose ties, mind hangin' on by a thread
Lose time, thinkin' about what's comin' ahead)
