

Hey!

I know you think about me
Oh I know you think about me
I know you think about me
I know you think about me
Go places I shouldn't be
Go places I shouldn't be

You think we're similar
But baby we are not alike
Been disconnected from my head
What's going on inside?
You said you need to see me one last time
But if I do that I will not survive

It can't be OCD
Think your obsessed with me
There ain't no you and I
So quit suggesting things
I wear my feelings high
It gets the best of me
Don't think I've heard those lies
You're not impressing me

'Round in a circle we go
Block me and burn all my clothes
You know we been here before
Yeah, you stay doing the most
Ooh
Yeah, it's just something I'm not ready for
Your love is buried in a metaphor

It's not easy
And I been going back to you like repeat
High maintenance, cover all my needs
Wide awake all night, got no sleep
Just wanna stress for me fun
Cat got a hold of your tongue
Look for an exit to run
I've finally had enough

I can't keep tripping and falling
Over the shit that you wanted
All of that baggage I came with
I had your patience and lost it
I can't keep tripping and falling
Over the shit that you wanted
All of that baggage I came with
I had your patience and lost it

It can't be OCD
Think your obsessed with me
There ain't no you and I
So quit suggesting things
I wear my feelings high
It gets the best of me
Don't think I've heard those lies

You're not impressing me

It can't be OCD

It can't be OCD
