

KassGoCrazy
Oh

That's crazy
All I gotta say
It's even worse 'cause you made me that way
Don't blame me
Everything worked out
But we never worked out
We could never work it out
Now you in the club every night, tryna work it out
Same thing, same problems every time
All those drugs got you higher than a mount
Black tar, white lie, white lines

When you play to lose, when you play to lose, when you play to lose
When you play to lose, when you play to lose, when you play to lose

Killing everything except my appetite
If you ain't first you last, tell that day good night
'Bout to act up, yeah, I just might
How you love yo' mans?
You bought him Nike Flights

I swear I'm always so faded
[?] missed out on the flight
I don't wanna talk to you, bitch, I don't wanna fight
No, no, all this shit I'm doing, yeah, it's not gon' make it right
Baby, I just play to lose, I'll just win another time
I just wish I could stop it
Sticky and it's toxic
Feel the caving in my brain, got me feeling robotic
Last year, I was no one
This year, I'ma top it
But these feelings never change, no matter how much am I wildin'
And that's crazy
'Cause I'm still worried about safety
Couple people say they love me but not worried 'bout me lately
And that's just how it goes
Been on shit you'll never know
Designer drugs inside her body, don't know what's inside her nose, oh
(Oh, oh, oh)

And they said everything looks different and you wanted [?]
But if I had to make assumptions, you'd get [?]
And I can't tell you why it seems you're better off
And I wish I could know, but I will never try it again, 'cause I was never t hinking about myself
'Cause I don't need anyone else
And that's crazy, 'cause maybe you think you tried it all
But I know that you're faking, so I don't care at all
'Cause it's not entertaining and that's just something I can't understand
And that's crazy, but maybe this isn't what I wanted
And I know you're playing, but you look fucking dumb
I don't think that it's trash, but I hope that you go and find your way
