Bro, I like, I'd start trapping like *****
(That's a real hustle!)
That's a- Nah, I know! For real, I started trapping like ***** * not, like non-real *****
(Ericdoa, scam rapper)
Hahaha! Fucking, goddamn Detroit
(That smells like Oreos, by the way You're so right, yo can I hit that?)
Sure, since you asked
(Hahaha!)
'Cause you asked nicely
(Thank you very much)

I hurt you way too much, but just know that I mean well
Sick in my brain, baby, tell you that I need help
I could say that I'm fine like a slave to my mind
Yeah, I watch it all collapse

I think it's only right if I tried setting you free
The person that you need is someone that I never could be
Yeah, I hate the way that I can't escape
From bringing all this pain
Always knew just what to say when I was at my worst
Try not to get myself involved, it would never work
You were the only one I wanted
But I'm not what you deserve
Yeah, I can't help from fuckin' shit up
Try to pick me up, but you've tried enough
It was out of love that I let you stress
It's just shit you don't deserve

I hurt you way too much, but just know that I mean well
Sick in my brain, baby, tell you that I need help
I could say that I'm fine like a slave to my mind
Yeah, I watch it all collapse
