

WASTE AWAY

ericdoa

I just wanna waste away
You hide your feelings every time
Pray for the saving grace
And repeat, nevermind
But I can't walk away
'Cause you're the only one I want
This is my mistake
And now you run from everyone

I just wanna waste away
You hide your feelings every time
Pray for the saving grace
And repeat, nevermind
But I can't walk away
'Cause you're the only one I want
This is my mistake
And now you run from everyone

Say you and me do what I love it when you sing
I'm gon' stay a loser, 'cause we all gon' have to win
I feel transparent, you can see right through my skin
[?] start a [?] I'll start to spray
I just [?] one shot for my brother, just for my kid
Can't fall for anyone, knowing my patience is runnin' thin
Can't feel destruction that's always been tried within'
An explanation? I don't know where to begin

I just wanna waste away
You hide your feelings every time
Pray for the saving grace
And repeat, nevermind
But I can't walk away
'Cause you're the only one I want
This is my mistake
And now you run from everyone

I just wanna waste away
You hide your feelings every time
Pray for the saving grace
And repeat, nevermind
But I can't walk away
'Cause you're the only one I want
This is my mistake
And now you run from everyone
