

Grace

Erik Hassle

Hey Grace, you're beautiful
Your face, so meaningful
I embrace the thought of you
Hey Grace, I lost you
Hey Grace, I lost you
I'm sure we've met before
In the dream, down by the shore
Where thoughts were readable
Hey Grace, I lost you
Hey Grace, I lost you
How will I find all the pieces
You left behind
How will I find all the chases
Hey Grace, you're beautiful
Your face, so meaningful
I would chase the dream of you
Hey Grace, I lost you
Hey Grace, I lost you
How will I find, all the pieces
And oh
How will I find all the chases
Hey Grace
Hey Grace
Hey Grace, you're beautiful
