

Missing You

Erik Hassle

That lucky charm you gave me
On my twenty-first birthday
I still wear it on my key chain
Think it keeps me out of trouble
I've been working on letting go
Set my mind on a new phase
But sometimes it just takes control
Oh, the darkness

I see the sky about to rain
That cloud of yours is rolling in
Your tears raining down on me
I'm missing you, missing you

I'm missing you
I can't stop missing you, oh
I'm missing
I'm missing you, yeah
Yeah yeah yeah

And I remember it like yesterday
How you looked right at me
Like you know what was coming
Like you knew, somehow
I held your hand in the ambulance
I held your hand as you faded away
I could feel your energy
A pillar to the heavens

I'm missing you
I can't stop missing you
I'm missing
I'm missing you
Yeah yeah yeah

I see the sky about to rain
That cloud of yours rolling in
Your tears raining down on me
I'm missing you

I'm missing you
I can't stop missing you, no
I'm missing
I'm missing you

I'm missing you
I can't stop missing you
I'm missing
I'm missing you
