

Took a hit on the balcony
I'm still here, give me all that you got
Tonight no apologies
What they know about us?
They're not you and me

No one knows what tomorrow holds
But right now, you would kill for the pain
No use in looking back, keep the hurt at bay, yeah

I got wounds from my lover, she tore me up
I can show you how to pass the blame
I got a hole in my pocket from the scars I bought
Are you game?
Will you play?
I got wounds from my lover, she tore me up
I can show you how to pass the blame
I got a hole in my pocket from the scars I bought
Are you game?
Will you play?
The game of love
Just one more round
You're TKO, come knock me down

You know I'd rather let it bleed
Then back off while my heart grows cold
And no more insecurities
Make it all about us
Baby, you and me

We don't know what tomorrow holds
But tonight let me cure the pain
No use in looking back, keep the hurt at bay yeah

I got wounds from my lover, she tore me up
I can show you how to pass the blame
I got a hole in my pocket from the scars I bought
Are you game?
Will you play?
The game of love
Just one more round
You're TKO, come knock me down

I got wounds from my lover, she tore me up
I can show you how to pass the blame
I got a hole in pocket full of scars I bought
