

Karma

Erika Costell

I know, I know
I can say high you can say low
I know who you are
You went way too far

I know, I know
All of those things you think I don't
You forgot that part
I guess snakes got heart and

You act, you act, you act, you act
Like you're invincible
You act, you act, you act, you act
But I'm gonna let it go, uh

I don't have to be a bitch
I know karma's gonna deal with it
You can say what you want to say, yeah
You can say what you want about me
I know karma's gonna deal with it

You tried, you lied
Lucky for you, you're not worth my time
And the worst part is
All I did was give

Good bye, peace sign
I don't need to hear all of your alibis
Go ahead, talk shit
I'm not listening

You act, you act, you act, you act
Like you're invincible
You act, you act, you act, you act
But I'm gonna let it go, uh

I don't have to be a bitch
I know karma's gonna deal with it
You can say what you want to say, yeah
You can say what you want about me
I know karma's gonna deal with it

And I'm not saying I don't wanna see ya happy
Don't see ya happy, don't see ya happy
I'm just saying that I think it'd make me happy
For you to hurt as badly as you hurt me (not really hurt)

I don't have to be a bitch (I don't, I don't)
I know karma's gonna deal with it (karma's gonna deal with it)
You can say what you want to say, yeah
You can say what you want about me
I know karma's gonna deal with it

Deal with it
