

Me Time

Erika Costell

Woke up, nothin' but love
Sexy as fuck, yeah, yeah
Last night, blowing me up (ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh)
All day, makin' my moves
To tell you the truth, yeah, yeah
I liked me without you (ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh)

One day, I might find something right, but not right now
One day, I might find something right

But baby, in the meantime, I'mma need a little more me time
A little more second, your free time, free time
Took some time to realize, I'm the only one who loves me right
So I'mma need a little more me time, me time, oh...

Too much to do in LA
Comin' outta my cage, yeah, yeah
No one to get in my way
And I might kiss someone
I don't know, just to see where it might go, or I won't
But you'll never know, nah, nah

One day, I might find something right, but not right now
One day, I might find something right

But baby, in the meantime, I'mma need a little more me time
A little more settin' your free time, free time
Took some time to realize, I'm the only one who loves me right
So I'mma need a little more me time, me time, oh...

Da, da, da, da, da, da
Da, da, da, da, da, da
I'mma need a, I'mma need a little me time, me time
Da, da, da, da, da, da
Da, da, da, da, da, da
I'mma need a little me time, just bit of little me time

(One day, I might find something right, but not right now
One day, I might find something right, but not right)
