

Someone To Chill With

Erika De Casier

Baby, I've been searching for Love in a different way (Love in a different way)
No, I don't want no strings attached
I know what I need to stay (I know what I need to stay)
Don't misunderstand my intentions
I like you, but honestly
I'd rather take a look around and see what's right for me

'Cause I don't want any relationship
I'm looking for someone to chill with
Someone who can make me weak with no strings on it
Not looking for the one and only
Don't need anybody, I got me
Just 'cause I'm alone, don't mean I'm lonely

If you wait a second, I'll be ready in a minute
Wanna look pretty 'cause I liked you from the first time
I saw you were online
And since you've been on my mind
Yeah, who knows? You might be
As crazy about me as I'll be
About you, yeah
About you

What you do, who you think of
And who you hang with is not my business
(I don't wanna know)
What you do for fun
'Cause this is not a one-on-one
(You're not the only, why would I lie to you?)
Well, you don't have to tell me anything

'Cause I don't want any relationship
I'm looking for someone to chill with
Someone who can make me weak with no strings on it
Not looking for the one and only
Don't need anybody, I got me (No, I don't need anybody)
Just 'cause I'm alone, don't mean I'm lonely (Just 'cause I'm a lone, just 'cause I'm alone)

I don't want anybody
Just someone to chill with
That makes me weak with no strings on it
And I'm not looking for the one and only
No, I don't need anybody
