

Space

Erika De Casier

Let me know, let me know, let me know
Let me know if I'm wrong
(Let me know if I'm wrong, babe)
If I'm still the one you wanted
Why you standing there with your doubts?
(Let me know if I'm wrong, babe)
Now, let me know, let me know, let me know
Let me know if I'm out (Let me know, your life soon)
'Cause you can't seem to stand the sight of me

There's a space between us now
I can't feel your body
And you don't look at me the way that you did
You say you need to think about it
Was it me? Was it something I did?
'Cause I cannot see the problem
Will you at least make me understand
Instead of saying sorry?

Let me see you, let me feel you, let me kiss you
Once at least (Is it too much to ask for?)
You say you're leaving in a minute
Why won't you wait for me? (Is it too much to ask for?)
Now, let me tell you, let me tell you
Let me tell a little somethin' 'bout me
I've seen enough of your tricks
Why you moving on suddenly?

There's a space between us now
I can't feel your body
And you don't look at me the way that you did
You say you need to think about it
Was it me? Was it something I did?
'Cause I cannot see the problem
Will you at least make me understand
Instead of saying sorry?

Sat you down on my bed
You said you wouldn't leave me never, know that
Now I'm out here, out doin' my best
I'm tryna get over you real fast
How long's this gon' last?
My friends are telling me I got it bad
Before it gets good
I'll be over you soon

There's a space between us now
I can't feel your body
And you don't look at me the way that you did
You say you need to think about it
Was it me? Was it something I did?
'Cause I cannot see the problem
Will you at least make me understand
Instead of saying sorry?

Let me see you, let me feel you, let me kiss you
Once at least (Is it too much to ask for?)

You say you're leaving in a minute
Why won't you wait for me? (Is it too much to ask for?)
