Mr. Juke Box

Ernest Tubb

The juke box just told my life's story
Told it in the words of a song
So I'll have another drink to the juke box
And one to the man that wrote the song

So here, Mr. Juke Box, please take my last dime
Tell me the story of my life one more time
Bring back the memories of a past that was wrong
Here's another drink to you, and the man who wrote the song

Ah, Dumplin'...

So here, Mr. Juke Box, please take my last dime
Tell me the story of my life one more time
Bring back the memories of a past that was wrong
Here's my last drink to you, so Mr. Juke Box so long
