

Somewhere County-Somewhere City U.S.A.

Ernest Tubb

In Somewhere County, Somewhere City, USA
There's someone somewhere who feels like I, a lonely stray
Who stands at windows, looking out in deep despair
Wanting nothing but someone to love and care

Somewhere County, Somewhere City, USA
Hopeless crossroads that we pass along the way
Somewhere County, Somewhere City, USA
Tomorrow could bring all the dreams you dream today

Belief comes hard when sorrow claims you for its own
You think your heartache is the greatest ever known
But just remember, hearts are broken every day
In Somewhere County, Somewhere City, USA

Somewhere County, Somewhere City, USA
Hopeless crossroads that we pass along the way
Somewhere County, Somewhere City, USA
Tomorrow could bring all the dreams you dream today
