

The Door's Always Open

Ernest Tubb

Saw your picture in the paper and I see you've married good
And I know that he can give you all the things I never could
But I know that he won't give you what you need most of all
Well, the door is always open and the light's on in the hall

Yes, the door is always open and the light's on in the hall
And you know that I'll be waiting if you'd ever come to call

And when night falls on that mansion and you're lying in his bed

When he begs for your attention will you think of me instead
And when he reaches out to touch you is your face turned to the wall

Yes, the door is always open and the light's on in the hall

Yes, the door is always open and the light's on in the hall
And you know that I'll be waiting if you'd ever come to call
