

Unfaithful One

Ernest Tubb

Unfaithful one your tears are falling
At last you're paying for your fun
Too many honest hearts you've broken
Go on and cry unfaithful one

So now you find you were mistaken
You thought your game was almost won
The tide has turned and left you weaken
Go on and cry unfaithful one

Unfaithful one your world has ended
It ended like it was begun
It started when a careless promise
Go on and cry unfaithful one

Your weeping heart your world has tumbled
Like broken hearts its come undone
A million tears can now rebuild it
Go on and cry unfaithful one
