

Classic

ERNEST

Girl, we're like a '64 baby blue Mustang
Top down cruising down a two lane road Swear it's like a sepia tone little polaroid photograph right a bove a rotary phone
Yeah, it's a lot going down on Broadway
The city's spinning faster all the time
So whatcha say we keep it low key, maybe slow it on down?
We can throw it on back tonight

Girl, there ain't nothing wrong
If we stay right here, let the record player roll on another st one
We can dance in the kitchen like they did back when
To a sounds like a song that you already know
And it feels like a melody you can't let go
Oh no, I ain't heard it, and I ain't had it
But girl, I'm sure that our love's classic

Got a little vinyl kinda hall of fame flame in a frame they gon
' talk about when we're gone
They'll put it in a book, hang a page on a hook
So they can see the all about we been on You're one of a kind, so hard to find
I'm all yours and you're all mine

Girl, there ain't nothing wrong
If we stay right here, let the record player roll on another st
one
We can dance in the kitchen like they did back when
To a sounds like a song that you already know
And it feels like a melody you can't let go
Oh no, I ain't heard it, and I ain't had it
But girl, I'm sure that our love's classic
Our love's classic

Whatever's happening downtown will remain a mystery
We're guaranteed to go down in a sure thing history

Girl, there ain't nothing wrong
If we stay right here, let the record player roll on another st
one
We can dance in the kitchen like they did back when
To a sounds like a song that you already know
And it feels like a melody you can't let go
Oh no, I ain't heard it, and I ain't had it
But girl, I'm sure that our love's classic
Our love's classic
