

Some Other Bar

ERNEST

Ooh, you know the funny little thing about us
Is that we're only here as long as the wind
And hey, it might never happen again
But if it does, then girl I knew
From the second that you walked in
That goodbye was just the beginning of me
Wishing on a midnight star
That I'll see you

At some other bar, some other Friday
At a hole in the wall, right by the highway
Or down by the water, you'll come around
Out of the blue, baby, it's going down
And I know when the whiskey pours
You know I'ma turn around and watch that door
Waiting to finish what we didn't even get to start
Someday, at some other bar
Ooh, at some other bar

Ooh, I'll have a Casamigos waiting on you
I'll throw my jacket on the back of the stool
Beside me, and you can find me
As soon as you walk in, and it was

Nothing but a midnight flame
But it's burning slow like an old coal train
Don't worry baby, go and do your thing
We'll pick it back up real soon someday

At some other bar, some other Friday
At a hole in the wall, right by the highway
Or down by the water, you'll come around
Out of the blue, baby, it's going down
And I know when the whiskey pours
You know I'ma turn around and watch that door
Waiting to finish what we didn't even get to start
Someday, at some other bar
Ooh, at some other bar

Some other night in a tin roof town
I'll be stealing kisses in a whole new crowd
It ain't over, it's just over for now
Hold me to it, girl, I owe you a round

At some other bar some other Friday
At a hole in the wall, right by the highway
Or down by the water, you'll come around
Out of the blue, baby, it's going down

At some other bar, some other Friday
At a hole in the wall, right by the highway
Or down by the water, you'll come around
Out of the blue, baby, it's going down
And I know when the whiskey pours
You know I'ma turn around and watch that door
Waiting to finish what we didn't even get to start
Someday, at some other bar

Oh, at some other bar
