

This moment's passing breeze feels like your tender breath I used to know so well

The silence is crushing the white noise that used to call my name

Break down and all my thoughts have escaped me

Except for all the things that show me your face ever so brightly

Poised through a lie that still remains

Such little left that I can say with authenticity

So I...

Close my eyes

And I can hear you calling from behind

Close my eyes

I swear I feel you crawling towards the light

Tell me the words that will keep you close

Poor soul, heart full

Temperature fluctuates

To later be buried in my own personal graveyard of emotion and past mistakes

Close my eyes

And I can hear you calling from behind

Close my eyes

I swear I feel you crawling towards the light

My skin is turning white

Watching your soul in flight

Close my eyes

I swear I feel you crawling towards the light

The bloody beat beat beat in my chest

The coldest chill creeping up my neck

Tell me the words that will keep you close

Life won't feel the same anymore 'cause you're gone

And it's far too late to say the things I'm sorry for

Five fingers gripping the glass

For the last time I'd hope to say

Three nights with no separation

I know too well there's one more thing I could have said

Life won't feel the same anymore 'cause you're gone

And it's far too late to say the things I'm sorry for

I can't take it back

I can't bring you back

Life won't feel the same anymore

'Cause you're gone

And I'm holding on
