

Lunar Halo

Erra

Lunar luminesce demystify
Solstice coalesce intensify
Exoskeleton of Heaven, a ghost in the machine
Relinquished minds in ethereality

Paint you a galaxy in that nocturnal canvas
Arcane nebula where we go to vanish
Illuminated glow of sleepless moonbow
Particles of ice in technicolored halo
Close your eyes, let gravity retract
Tandem divers falling toward the ether
Hand in hand, fingertips in palms
Tracing the lines like constellations

Lunar luminesce demystify
Solstice coalesce intensify
Exoskeleton of Heaven, a ghost in the machine
Relinquished minds in ethereality, feel

As expansive as our journey is
Home is so small, the further we fall
Tandem divers falling toward the ether
Hand in hand, fingertips in palms
Tracing the lines like constellations

Bodies circle a lunar halo
Bodies circle a lunar halo
Close your eyes, hand in hand (Bodies circle a lunar halo)
We dance along the edge (Bodies circle a lunar halo)

Bodies circle a lunar halo

Lunar luminesce demystify
Solstice coalesce intensify
Exoskeleton of Heaven, a ghost in the machine
Relinquished minds in ethereality

Can you feel it? Oh

The brightest world we find
May be the one we left behind
Although there is so much dark
We navigate by the light of the stars
Our grip may slip, and we may drift apart
But if I screamed loud enough
I am certain that you would feel a ripple
