

6 Million

Esham

I know you scared, the bloodstain was red
I filled them with lead, 'cause the wicketshit will never die
Hip hop is dead, he work for the feds
I blew off his head, 'cause the wicketshit will never die
I kill hip hop cops, get clipped up and dropped
You know it won't stop, 'cause the wicketshit will never die [?] get popped, ejected shells hot
Two cops just got shot, 'cause the wicketshit will never die

Six million ways to die
Six six six million ways to die, choose one
Six million ways to die
Six six six million ways to die, choose one

Twenty years on the wake up, tryin' to get your cake up
Wonder why they hate us? 'Cause the wicketshit will never die
Goin' up like elevators, the wicked levitater
Acid rap originator, 'cause the wicketshit will never die
I write my rhymes in blood, bustin' kickin' up dust
And I can't trust nobody, 'cause the wicketshit will never die
I came through the door, I said it before
I'm back out on tour, 'cause the wicketshit will never die

Six million ways to die
Six six six million ways to die, choose one
Six million ways to die
Six six six million ways to die, choose one

The war in Iraq, soldiers ain't comin' back
Fightin' suicide attacks, 'cause the wicketshit will never die
Man, I smoke the anthrax, spit acid on the track
And I still can't relax, 'cause the wicketshit will never die
I saw her on CNN, bald like the eagle
Lookin' like the sea hag, 'cause the wicketshit will never die
Britney Spears got a kojak, she stopped takin' prozac
I bust her out of rehab, 'cause the wicketshit will never die

Damn, Britney, if I knew you was gon' act like this, I wouldn't have never let you [?], you [?]

Six million ways to die
Six six six million ways to die, choose one
Six million ways to die
Six six six million ways to die, choose one
