

Active Shooter

Esham

Kids killing kids, kids killing kids
Kids killing kids, kids killing kids
Kids killing kids, kids killing kids
Kids killing kids, kids killing kids
Look out, it's these kids killing kids

Kids killing kids all day on the playground
All they hear is the sound of the AK round
Bang bang, another dead body found
Smith & Wesson, no adolescent is around
All these officers they quit they job, what we do now
Go inside the store and buy a gun, I'll show you how Fill out all these forms and hope that you can get one soon
But by the time you get home, there's a nigga in your living room

Kids killing kids, kids killing kids
Kids killing kids, kids killing kids

Kids killing kids, wild juvenile hostile
Everybody living in a state that's volatile
Paranoid schizophrenic President's a piece of shit
If he start to panic, push the button, blow the world to bits
Somebody call 9-1-1, there's an active shooter
At the elementary school watching porn on the computer
He shot the principal, he shot the teacher in her cooter
Now he's standing blackboard with an eraser and a ruler
The teacher fell to her knees, she cried and said, "Please!"
She promised not to tell and give him A's and B's
He said, "I want your money, dope, and all I can sell"
He looked into her eyes, and she was scared as hell
