

Dead End

Esham

Why won't you die?
I can see it in your eyes
Every time I look at you, I'm thinking to myself
There's nothing left
Why won't you die?
Every time I look at you, I'm thinking to myself

Why can't you cry?
'Cause you got no feelings inside
And you're dead
You're dead in your head
You said you'd never lie
You said you'd never leave me, but that wasn't true
And now my heart's in two
Why won't you die?
You said you love me, but you lied
Why'd you lie to me, you lied to me, so die now
You cannot love no one 'cause you don't know how
It's a little voice tellin' you
That they gonna be untrue
Gotta see it through now
Somehow
Gotta keep pushin' down that road
Gotta carry that heavy load
This world's so cold now
Right now
And you're not so pretty
Good girl, goin' bad for the city
In the club gettin' cash and plenty
No love, we want hundreds and fifties
Hundreds and fifties
Hundreds, hundreds, hundreds, hundreds

Why won't you die?
I can see it in your eyes
Every time I look at you, I'm thinking to myself
Why won't you die?
Every time I look at you, I'm thinking to myself

Why won't you die?
(Why won't you die? Why won't you die?)
I'm telling you there's nothing left inside of me
(Why won't you die? Why won't you die?)
There's nothing inside of me that I can see
(Why won't you die? Why won't you die?)
I died, I'm tellin' you there's nothing left inside of me
(There's nothing inside of me, there's nothing inside of me)
There's nothing inside of me
Why won't you die?
(Why won't you die? Why won't you die?)
I'm telling you there's nothing left inside of me
(Why won't you die? Why won't you die?)
There's nothing inside of me
Why won't you die?
(Why won't you die? Why won't you die?)
I'm telling you there's nothing left inside of me
(Why won't you die? Why won't you die?)
There's nothing inside of me
Why won't you die?
