I walk alone in darkness
You just might think I'm heartless
I got no love
I walk alone in darkness
You just might think I'm heartless
I got no love

I'm from Detroit, 48205
The east side, I don't know how the hell I survived
Motherfuckers snort crack on every block
Nigga, it's a roach in every sock
Detroit's where you die if you a dirty cop
And everybody and they mama pack a Glock
Crime is life, and life is crime
"To live is evil" is not just in my rhyme
Prince passed away, that's a sign of the times
Me and Eminem cool now
Put that on proof
Riding down Seven Mile in a coupe no roof
I am the underground, I am the truth
And it smell like gasoline in the vocal booth
Time still critical, every individual
Still for himself, chasing after wealth
Everybody gotta deal with they own cards they was dealt
Ice cold, thaw me out, but my heart still won't melt

I walk alone in darkness
You just might think I'm heartless
I got no love
I walk alone in darkness
You just might think I'm heartless
I got no love

I was never really shown no love, so how could I give some?
You only got one life to live, how could you live one?
On Judgement Day, when they look at all that you did, son
When God be talkin' to you, let Him know that you hear Him
If you near Him, don't fear Him, I know the world sick
But in my flow is a serum, I'm tryin' to cure 'em
Past the evils of the world I was tryin' to steer 'em
Keep the negativity out your cerebellum
Your thoughts are your realities, all I was tryin' to tell 'em
The game's to be sold not told, so I'ma sell 'em
Criminal minded, thinkin' like a felon
Steady goin' against the system, and I'm still rebellin'
We in Heaven gettin' [?] my pockets still swellin'
I got God on my squad, that's why I don't be failin'
Got the police in my rearview and they just gon' keep trailin'
So I might as well drive 'em straight to Hell and

I walk alone in darkness
You just might think I'm heartless
I got no love
I walk alone in darkness
You just might think I'm heartless
I got no love
