

Enemies

Esham

Started out strong, gettin' money, it was on
But somehow we went about the whole thing wrong
'Cause out of nowhere, it just came to an end
You pretend to be my friend, it was all about dividends
I don't know where I could start, it's too much hate in my heart
Too many demons in my mind trying to tear me apart
Was it something I did? Was it something I said
To make you hate me so much you put a slug in my head
I never knew I was sleeping with the enemy
You was my wifey, at least you pretended to be Bitch shot me in my sleep while I was drunk off Hennessy
Took all my [?] bussed off to Tennessee

Enemies, how many of us have them?
Enemies, ones that owe us fetty
Enemies, ones we want to murder
Enemies, we foes, y'all friends ain't ready
'Cause we're enemies

When we first went out together, we barely knew each other
Your family was starvin', I put on your little brother
I should've known better when he ran off with my sack
You be plottin' on my cheddar tryin' to run off with my stack
As I lay here soakin' in my own blood, eyes wide open
Not shut, I get up, and I'm hopin'
That she didn't take my pistols
So I'm on that bitch trail in the wind like a whistle
Baby, I can't wait to see you, I'm gonna hug you
Give you a kiss, tell you I love you, then slug you
You see this hole I dug you?
By the time got there, your face gone because I drug you
Behind the cars where I plugged you
Don't try to tell me it wasn't you, bitch, it was you
Gunshot Empty the clip, don't trip Gunshots Screaming
'Til death do us part, you goin' out like a gangster, bitch

Enemies, how many of us have them?
Enemies, ones that owe us fetty
Enemies, ones we want to murder
Enemies, we foes, y'all friends ain't ready
'Cause we're enemies

We like to bust shots at some because it's funny
Others in the ground 'cause they owe too much money
Never trust a rat with cheese let alone your keys
Money's the root of all evil and enemies
So now I'm kind of cold towards bitches I meet
'Cause I was shot and left for dead by a scandalous freak
But nevertheless, I'll spray you for cheese
Snake bitches take riches, they known as enemies

(You know you're my enemy)
You could've talked to me
You did not have to do this
(You know you're my enemy)
You did not have to shoot me in my head
And run off with another bitch

Enemies, how many of us have them?
Enemies, ones that owe us fetty
Enemies, ones we want to murder
Enemies, we foes, y'all friends ain't ready
'Cause we're enemies

[?] calling regarding Crystal Meth
Um, [?] the person that called the other day
And I just wanted to know that there was a
Change in the schedule
And the start date would be Tuesday, June 29th
Instead of Monday
And Tuesday, the time that Crystal would be here
Would be, um, eleven o' clock, and so come about-
