Fall Into The Fire

I can't listen to the radio, they play too many ghost
I'm tryin' to get to Heaven, but this Hell is just too close
I wanna fall asleep, but then I just might overdose
I fall into the fire as my body start to roast
Somebody tell the doctor that I need a new prescription
A murder was committed, I was fittin' the description
They said it was an accident, a head-on collision
I'll cut you like a surgeon scalpel made for incision
I make the decision should I twist and you should listen
They'll put your face on the side of a milk box 'cause you missin'
My wicked intuition got me full of suspicion
I smell it in the air like a bull when he shittin'

When you fall into the fire, you get what you desire
You get what you desire when you fall into the fire
When you fall into the fire, you get what you desire
You get what you desire when you fall into the fire
When you fall into the fire, you get what you desire
You get what you desire when you fall into the fire
When you fall into the fire, you get what you desire
You get what you desire when you fall into the fire

I was thinkin' 'bout this rhyme when it was thunderin' and lightenin'
You look into my mind, and my story's quite frightenin'
The world is gettin crazy 'cause America eats its babies
A motherfucker still thuggin', can't nobody save me
I know a life sentence really ain't the thing for me
I bust too much wicket shit and speak in blasphemy
Wicket I have to be 'cause they comin' after me
When you die and go to Hell, get there, ask for me
I can't go to church no more, the preacher said I can't come in
He threw some holy water on me and it burned my skin
I thought repentance was supposed to wash away your sins
Apparently I done died and went to Hell but gotta go again

When you fall into the fire, you get what you desire
You get what you desire when you fall into the fire
When you fall into the fire, you get what you desire
You get what you desire when you fall into the fire
When you fall into the fire, you get what you desire
You get what you desire when you fall into the fire
When you fall into the fire, you get what you desire
You get what you desire when you fall into the fire

I shot a hole in my TV 'cause they show too many faggots
You look inside my brain and see nothing but some maggots
A wicket invitation, psychic evaluation
Fire started arsonist, heat to burn down the nation
Autopsy examination, die from smoke inhalation
Family make preparations for your body cremation
My only donation is bullet ejaculation
No more conversation 'bout our confrontation
Blisters poppin', preacher preach another sermon
Bullets blastin', all the bodies still be burnin'
As the world keeps turnin' full of so many liars

I just fall into the fire (Fall into the fire)

When you fall into the fire, you get what you desire
You get what you desire when you fall into the fire
When you fall into the fire, you get what you desire
You get what you desire when you fall into the fire
When you fall into the fire, you get what you desire
You get what you desire when you fall into the fire
When you fall into the fire, you get what you desire
You get what you desire when you fall into the fire
