

Get Me Down

Esham

Nothing's gonna get, nothing's gonna get
Nothing's gonna get me down

Don't tell people I played ya, go tell people I payed ya
It's all Reel Life, homie, so you know I made ya
I'm chasing major paper trying to find a spot that's safer
The only thing rap did for me was make me hate ya
It made me see the light, gave me sight beyond sight
Niggas will play you to the left even if you treat 'em right
Beside, 'cause you just loyal to your own fam
You got your own plans, destiny in your own hands

Nothing's gonna get, nothing's gonna get
Nothing's gonna get me down

I never wished this life on nobody
'Cause niggas will book you for the party
Then rock your body with the shotty
You just a sacrifice to the game
I speak lyrics like teflon bullets, they'll blow out your brains
You know dead rappers get all the fuckin' fame
So I'd rather nobody know my fuckin' name

Nothing's gonna get, nothing's gonna get
Nothing's gonna get me down ([?])

'Cause I got no sample clearance, no in-store appearance
Drinking and driving and my license suspended
Wonderin' should I blow my brains out, kill myself and just end it
Yo my suicidal style, you know I don't recommend it
'Cause blood, sweat, and tears went into this

Nothing's gonna get, nothing's gonna get
Nothing's gonna get me down

You can't get me down, sit me down
Shut me up or shut me down
All of my life I've been bustin' the guns
So niggas should know I ain't fuckin' around
I dumped a pump, a killer for chump
The back of his head, I blew off a chunk
The family know to file to police
They said that you've been missing for months
Despite the fact you already dead
The murder haunts me all in my head
But still

Nothing's gonna get, nothing's gonna get
Nothing's gonna get me down

Not even bodies falling, homicide detectives calling
In deep, shitty water from Detroit to New Orleans
They runnin' out of oil and the whole planet's boilin'
The world's one big piece of shit goin' down a toilet

Nothing's gonna get, nothing's gonna get
Nothing's gonna get me down
