

Spread my wings and fly away
I'm goin' to where there's unconditional love
There's no place like home
Spread my wings and fly away
I'm goin' to where there's unconditional love
There's no place like home

Father, forgive me for all the sins I committed
I know I was wrong, I'll be the first to admit it Started bustin' caps like a Detroit fitted
Times was hard, the only reason I did it
But that's no excuse for my drug abuse
I'm on the winnin' team, but I love to lose
God, before I see sobriety I'd love to use
Lookin' out the window from a dope fiend's view
Drunk night binges, heroin syringes
Some men just live horrendous
I pretend to love life, but end this
In the fight of my life, how can I win this

Spread my wings and fly away
I'm goin' to where there's unconditional love
There's no place like home
Spread my wings and fly away
I'm goin' to where there's unconditional love
There's no place like home

I'm tired of livin', I'm tired of givin'
Everything and gettin' nuttin' in return
I'ma let it burn and I'm not concerned
'Til I'm six feet deep in the dirt with the worms
I got a migraine in my maggot brain
And it never goes away, that's why I keep sayin' the same thing
We all different people

Spread my wings and fly away
I'm goin' to where there's unconditional love
There's no place like home
Spread my wings and fly away
I'm goin' to where there's unconditional love
There's no place like home
