

Mi Bella

Esham

There's something about you
That makes me feel like I can't live without you
Baby, I doubt you could ever see what I see
Looking in the mirror, and it still really wasn't clear to me
That you an angel spreading your wings
And I was just horny, thinking devilish things
What's a king without a queen?
A nightmare without a dream, what's dope without a fiend?
What's you without sixteen in the magazine
Or the infrared beam
Must be that pillow talk, under my pillow
She got your pussy-ass weepin' like a willow

For mi bella, mi bella
She mi amor and I love and I tell her
Mi bella, mi bella
She mi amor and I love and I tell her
Mi bella, mi bella
She mi amor and I love and I tell her
Mi bella, mi bella
She mi amor and I love and I tell her

Every time I hold ya, something in the back of my mind
Lets me know that I can't control ya
Blasphemy, it was nice to know ya
Treat ya like a throwaway, time to throw ya
She told me this was not the way things were supposed to go
And her love's not disposable
She was hot like a candle, flew off at the handle
The slugs started flying, someone dying in the [?]
And this wasn't a part of the plan, yo
I can't take you nowhere, I'm just saying, though

For mi bella, mi bella
She mi amor and I love and I tell her
Mi bella, mi bella
She mi amor and I love and I tell her
Mi bella, mi bella
She mi amor and I love and I tell her
Mi bella, mi bella
She mi amor and I love and I tell her

Since I stayed in a toxic relationship, I was facing shit
With the bitch, since I should have twist the bitch
Now I wanna dump her, and I need to switch the bitch
Put her in my trunk, and I tied her up and pitched the bitch
Now I got another ditch to dig
But first I gotta barbecue to start, gotta roast the pig
But they caught me with some ham hocks
I told 'em I was cooking collared greens with the lamb chops
Know what time it is, I don't wear a damn watch
Since I was young, all I did was watch for the cops
Good fellas, forever is me and my bella
And I gotta keep her with me 'cause she never forget me
And she never let the plans for your scams hit me
And I'm never worried, 'cause my ma'am's with me

For mi bella, mi bella
She mi amor and I love and I tell her
Mi bella, mi bella
She mi amor and I love and I tell her
Mi bella, mi bella
She mi amor and I love and I tell her
Mi bella, mi bella
She mi amor and I love and I tell her
