

Rain Drops

Esham

Raindrops keep fallin' on my head
But I still find the strength to get up out of bed, I gotta get my bread
I gotta get a job, that's what my mama said
I'm gon' be workin' hard until the day I'm dead
I ain't no get rich quick scheme, so chase your dreams
But it's a nightmare, and that's on everything
Can you feel my pain? East side Eddie Kane
Orange Juice Jones, if you see me walkin' in the rain
Nothin' to lose, everything to gain
Everybody got a sad story if you listen, but I can't complain
It's such a strain on your brain, money over fame
Everybody know your name, people that you know will change
Good fella, keep an umbrella
Just another ghetto storyteller
Came from bustin' raps in a cellar
How can I tell her I'm the number one seller?
'Cause I DoorDash for more cash
Now what's the forecast?

I don't want to rain on 'em if it's slight precipitation
A lot of hatin' in the nation ever since inauguration
All the enemies we facing and aliens in space and
The killers in the street got masks on like Jason
It's a 50% chance of showers and thunderstorms
It's partly cloudy, so I keep my fatigues on
I love the sunshine, but watch me do my dance in the rain
East side, everything is on me like a heavy chain
The weatherman never bitter, I'm better man
Bettermade made a lot of chips, I'm forever paid
I tell them all, nights like this I wish rain would fall
Rain drop so my head it ain't the same at all
Rain, rain, go away, but come back some other day
We need the sun rays for all the growin' pains
I was havin' thangs, never showin' thangs
I'm always plantin' seeds, 'cause I'm always growin' thangs

When the raindrops keep fallin', sunshine is coming
Raindrops keep fallin', sunshine is coming

Sunny days, everybody love a mane
But let me ask you something, can you stand the rain?
Can you stand the fire? Can you stand the flame?
Can you look inside the mirror and accept the blame?
My life in the sunshine duckin' one time
Chasin' mills like I'm in the lunch time
A lot of pain of course, when it rains, it pours
Bet you did the same thing when it came to yours
I said rain rain go away, come again another day
When you do it big like this, they supposed to hate
Big raindrops plop plop in the middle of puddles
Got another play for the team when we huddle
World spinnin' while I'm winnin' so I keep it kinda subtle
I got money on my mind girl ain't got no time to cuddle
All this pain on my brain I just can't explain
I wanna go outside in the rain
