Got a snowball's chance in Hell
If you think they raisin' that bail
Niggas will leave your dumb ass
To rot up in a cell (You tell 'em)
Got a snowball's chance in Hell
If you think your girl is true (My girl)
Bitches will leave your ass stankin'
Like some doo doo
Got a snowball's chance in Hell
If you think these streets love you
Niggas will spill your blood and plug you
Fill you with some slugs too
Got a snowball's chance in Hell
If you think you got somethin' comin'
The last motherfucker adoptin' kids died
Phillip Drummond
Got a snowball's chance in Hell
If you think things get better
Nigga, it's a cold world
You better pack a sweater
Got a snowball's chance in Hell
'Cause love don't live here no mo'
They find your ass froze to death
In three feet of snow
It's snowin' outside, cold as fuck, I hear somebody yell
Footprints in the snow, thought I was walkin' by myself
Bloodstains in the snow, and then I see a face that's frozen
Police flash they lights off of the butcher knife I'm holdin'
Oh shit, don't understand it, they thought I's caught red-handed
Until I jumped right off a cliff, into the snow I landed
Not how I planned it, it just happened that way
Then I got up out the snow and just walked away
Bye (Metaphors)

How much dope you think you gon' sell?

By some crazy police
