

Thanx

Esham

I just wanna thank you for letting me see another day
I just wanna thank you for showing me it's a better way
I just wanna thank you for being there when I needed you
I just wanna thank you for letting me just believe it's true

I just wanna thank you for buying my CD's
And coming to my shows and give me trees for free
I just wanna thank you for all the good times
I met you back stage, you got your autograph signed
I just wanna thank you for having an open mind
You keep this music alive, the wicketshit won't die

I just wanna thank you for letting me see another day
I just wanna thank you for showing me it's a better way
I just wanna thank you for being there when I needed you
I just wanna thank you for letting me just believe it's true

I just wanna thank you for saying I'm better than Jay-Z
Dave Chappelle shooting suckers like Wayne Brady
Even Drake, what can he say he Did it without a deal, but yeah, they had to pay me
I just wanna thank you, for listening when no one else did
I just wanna thank you, for helping me build my wealth, kid
I just wanna thank you, for feeling it like I felt it
I just wanna thank you, can't help it, thankful you not selfish

I just wanna thank you for letting me see another day
I just wanna thank you for showing me it's a better way
I just wanna thank you for being there when I needed you
I just wanna thank you for letting me just believe it's true

I just wanna thank you
