

Unbelievable

Esham

This is some more wicket shit for you - now what the fuck you g on' do
When I bring in the rock and roll to clock the dough
All the weak motherfuckers got to go
I got soul, I sell soul, I sold soul to you - now you got soul too
Young brothers and sisters, this is for the suicidalists
And unholy poetry listeners
I'm finna take it to the end of time
Esham and the Unholy's out your mind
Is there life after death? I don't think so Fuck those who said so - only the dead know
I'm not a baptist, but I rap this acid rap
I'm the MC that put Hell on the map
Esham's more than a mouthful
So don't doubt me, fool
I'm unbelievable

Put you in a state of shock and make you have a heart attack
Never in your life have you ever heard a harder rap
The black devil, the devil is black, the devil is back To come to write an [?]
Fuck those motherfuckers who don't like me 'cause I'm makin' it Everybody kickin' it
All I got to say about you jealous motherfuckers is y'all make good dick suckers
Wishin' you were down with the Product
But if you come around, boy, you gettin' shot at
I know I flow so hard - and for my next trick I'ma pull your ca rd
I got the 9mm pointed at your dome
My infrared is on your head
I'm unbelievable

I'm like Bloody Mary, but more scary
I'll kick your derriere ass - no joke, you won't last Droppin' the funk like I pass gas
Who gets the last laugh or is it that crazy
Some say I must be Rosemary's baby
And it's just like child's play
I'ma kick some old wicket shit, then I'll say
We all in Hell - no Sunday school for me
I'm not blind, G - I don't give a fuck
I'm the Atomic Dog [?] fool
Get it right the first time or I'll be back with a worse rhyme
Esham's more than a mouthful, so don't doubt me, fool
I'm unbelievable
