Gold teeth make your breath stink, that's a known fact
I'm drippin' drippin' drippin' candy paint off in a Cadillac
I'm riding around, and I'm eating it
These niggas mad 'cause I'm heating it
My dick girl be lickin' it
Told her I make it rain, but I tricked the bitch
My volume on ten, but I'm all the way turnt up
Hugging blocks in Detroit, everywhere they burnt up
I'm picking up, and I'm dropping off
The [?] got me popping off
I love your girl, she top me off
She keep me clean, she wash me off
I know life's a beach, so I'm always on splish splash

I'm corner hugging and burning rubber
I'm under cover with your mother
All you bastards will discover
I am a motherfucker
Upper echelon, shit, I set the precedents
I fly high like the sky is my residence
My homies move that cargo up and down the interstates
Rock them gold chains, medallion size of some dinner plates
I'm drippin' drippin' drippin' candy paint metallic flakes
They know they love me but for some reason gotta hate
I cut the grass in the game so I can see the snakes
You wanna bet against me? Well, I'ma raise the stakes
Fuck the fame, fuck your name, niggas playin' hungry games
Glock star aim right, lose the game, lose your life
Rappin' ain't gon' save you, look what all I gave you
Niggas trying to break free of all the shit they slaves to
